Report of Independent Auditors

To the Board of Directors and Shareholder of AFBA Five Star Securities Company:

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of financial condition and the related statements of income, changes in shareholder's equity, and cash flows present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of AFBA Five Star Securities Company at December 31, 2006 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audit of these statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in schedules I, II, and III as of December 31, 2006 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements; but is supplementary information required by the Securities and Exchange Commission under Rule 17a-5 of the Securities Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

AFBA FIVE STAR SECURITIES COMPANY
(a wholly-owned subsidiary of AFBA 5 Star Investment Management Co.)
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2006

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS

AFBA Five Star Securities Company (the Company) is a limited broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD). The Company was organized as a Virginia Corporation on July 19, 1999, and is a wholly-owned subsidiary of AFBA 5 Star Investment Management Co. (IMCO) and ultimately a wholly-owned subsidiary of Armed Forces Benefit Association (AFBA).

The Company was established to be a distribution source for IMCO for the marketing of the AFBA 5Star Funds (the Funds) and is not engaged in any other lines of business. The Company is licensed in forty-nine jurisdictions. Because the Company does not carry or hold securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, the Company is exempt from SEC Rule 15c3-3.

NOTE 2 - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The significant accounting policies followed by the Company are summarized below:

Cash equivalents - Cash equivalents consist of short-term investments with original maturities of 90 days or less.

Prepaid expenses - Prepaid expenses consist of insurance and license fees capitalized and amortized over a one-year period.

Service fees - The Company has entered into a contract with IMCO whereby it receives an annual service fee equal to the total operating costs incurred by the Company for the related period, net of any investment earnings received and distribution fees and sales charge revenue earned.

Commissions and distribution fees - The Company has entered into an agreement with PFPC Distributors, Inc., the primary distributor of the Funds, whereby the Company, on behalf of the Funds, will advance all sales commissions of the B and C share classes of the Funds, as well as pay the sales commission on sales of the A share class that reach a qualified level at which there is no upfront sales charge. Commission advances are capitalized and amortized over the expected contingent deferred sales charge period of seven years for B shares and one year for C shares, whereas the A share commissions are expensed as incurred. Contingent deferred sales charges ("CDSC") received from shareholders of the B and C share classes of the Funds upon redemption of their shares are recorded as reductions in unamortized advanced commissions when received. Sales charges for A shares are recognized as revenue when received. In return for advancing the sales commissions, the Company receives SEC Rule 12b-1 distribution fees in the amount of 0.75% per annum of the respective net assets on which a sales commission was advanced.

The gross carrying amount of B and C share advanced commissions, accumulated amortization and cumulative CDSC received were $424,900, $150,110 and $65,614 at December 31, 2006, respectively. Amortization expense was $159,093 for the year ended December 31, 2006. The estimated amortization expense, based on the December 31, 2006 net balance of $209,176 for each of the next five years is $84,038, $36,163, $34,448, $28,924, and $18,251. The Company tests the recoverability of the advance commission asset annually, or when events and changes in circumstances occur that could significantly increase the risk of non-recovery by comparison to estimated undiscounted future cash flows to be realized from this asset. At December 31, 2006, advanced commissions are considered fully recoverable. The gross amount of A share commissions expensed and cumulative CDSC received since inception were $11,715 and $9,656, as of December 31, 2006.

Income taxes - The Company is included in the consolidated Federal income tax return filed by 5 Star Financial LLC (Financial), IMCO's immediate parent. Federal income taxes are calculated as if the companies filed on a separate return basis, and the amount of current tax or benefit calculated is either remitted to or received from Financial. The amount of current and deferred taxes payable or refundable is recognized as of the date of the financial statements, utilizing currently enacted tax laws and rates. Deferred tax expenses or benefits are recognized in the financial statements for the changes in deferred tax liabilities or assets between years.

Use of estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. Estimates also affect the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 3 - RELATED PARTIES

In addition to the service fees paid to the Company by IMCO, the Company is engaged in a variety of other transactions with affiliated companies relating to the marketing of the Funds and general operations of the Company. Certain costs incurred by the affiliates are passed on to the Company directly. Because of the affiliated relationships, the financial statements may not be indicative of the financial condition or results of operations if the Company were a standalone entity. A formal allocation agreement exists for the allocation of salaries and other personnel costs. Total costs incurred under the agreement were $136,000 in 2006.

The Company had outstanding payables of $20,137 to IMCO for salaries and general operating expenses at December 31, 2006. The Company had outstanding related party receivables of $27,447 from IMCO at December 31, 2006.

The Company leases 152 square feet of office space from Financial. Total rent expense incurred in 2006 was $6,165. Included in rent expense are pass-through expenses for the Company's proportionate share of real estate taxes and other rental operating expenses. Total future minimum lease payments under existing leases as of December 31, 2006 are as follows:

For the year ending:

2007	$ 4,707
2008	4,848
2009	3,718
Total	$ 13,273

NOTE 4 - FAIR VALUES OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments:

Cash and cash equivalents and distribution fees receivable - The carrying amount approximates fair value because of their short maturities.

NOTE 5 - NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2006, the Company had net capital of $165,654 which was $160,654 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's net capital ratio was 0.17 to 1.

COMPUTATION FOR DETERMINATION OF RESERVE REQUIREMENTS UNDER RULE 15c3-3 OF THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2006

The Company is exempt from the provisions of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission Act of 1934 in accordance with Section K(1).

Schedule III
AFBA FIVE STAR SECURITIES COMPANY
(a wholly-owned subsidiary of AFBA 5 Star Investment Management Co.)
INFORMATION RELATING TO POSSESSION OR CONTROL REQUIREMENTS
UNDER RULE 15c3-3 OF THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2006

The Company is exempt from the provisions of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission Act of 1934 in accordance with Section K(1).

To Board of Directors and Shareholder of
AFBA Five Star Securities Company:

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of AFBA Five Star Securities Company (the "Company") as of and for the year ended December 31, 2006, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of compliance with such practices and procedures, that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g), in the following:

1. Making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11); and
2. Determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3.

Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13;
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System; and
3. Obtaining and maintaining physical possession or control of all fully paid and excess margin securities of customers as required by Rule 15c3-3;

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of control and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of internal control to future periods is subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis.

A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the entity's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report financial data reliably in accordance with generally accepted principles such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the entity's financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first, second, and third paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2006 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
